51. Briefly describe the vegetation and habitat conditions on the property. [help]
This project area is in the subtidal marine zone. An eelgrass survey of the project area was completed in August 2019. The substrate beneath the farm is generally muddy/silt with no observable sign of submerged aquatic vegetation (SAV), including eelgrass identified. Other data sources also indicate a lack of eelgrass and other SAV in the area (DNR 2022, Ecology 2022).

The area is accessed by boat only. It is located just north of the town of Shelton, and east of SR 3.

Part 6-Project Description

6a. Briefly summarize the overall project. You can provide more detail in 6b. [help]
The project will include the installation of subtidal anchors, which will be attached to buoys. Approximately 30 double lines and 60 anchors will be installed, including a 20- to 30-foot spacing between headlines. There could also be up to 30 screw anchors installed in the center of each line. The gear is anticipated to remain continuously but can be removed for a few weeks for fishing access when coordinated with the Squaxin Island Tribe.
6b. Describe the purpose of the project and why you want or need to perform it. [help]
The floating structure will be used for oyster seed and oyster grow-out cultivation intended for human consumption. This project is intended to relieve population pressure on the existing Taylor Oakland Bay FLUPSY and provide an additional location for oyster grow-out.

Other:  6e. Describe how you plan to construct each project element checked in 6d. Include specific construction methods and equipment to be used. [help]  ■ Identify where each element will occur in relation to the nearest waterbody.  ■ Indicate which activities are within the 100-year floodplain.  Anchors will be installed by divers supported by a surface vessel and hydraulic drivers with minimum substrate disturbance. Each double line will consist of 2,000 feet of synthetic line attached to anchors at each end. There is a 25-foot section of rope at each end to allow for flipper access, which is a device that tips the bags over. Each double line will have surface buoys at each end and 2 midline floats if there is a chance that the line will drag on the seabed. Each end of the line will be attached to one 2,000-pound wedge anchor. A total of 30 double lines and 60 anchors will be installed, including a 20- to 30-foot spacing between headlines. There could also be a screw anchor in the center of each line, depending on need.

Oyster seed will be transported to the site and divided by species, age class and broodstoc placed in floating containers. Shellfish are grown to desired size and then moved to other lo for final grow-out or harvested and taken to Taylor facilities for processing.
