RE: Building Permit Information

Mason County has continued to expand their services available on their website. The newest addition is the availability of building, septic, well, planning and other development permits.

The public will be able to check the progress of their permit, see inspection results and also research properties to see if structures and/or improvements were permitted.

Information can be searched by case number, parcel number or by the applicant's name.

The following information will be made available via the Mason County website: permit number, case status, site address, applicant (including mailing address), parcel number, project valuation (BLD and COM cases), project description activities (title, date assigned, date completed, disposition, assigned to, completed by and notes/comments) permit fees (title, amount due, amount paid, total due, total paid, total outstanding) conditions (title, verbiage). The system is set to automatically update the information every two hours (9 a.m., 1 a.m., 1p.m., 3 p.m., 5 p.m.)
