RE: Mason County Historic Preservation Commission

The Mason County Commissioners are seeking applicants to fill a position on the Mason County Historic Preservation Commission.

The major responsibility of the Historic Preservation Commission is to identify and actively encourage the conservation of the Mason County's historic resources by initiating and maintaining a register of historic places and reviewing proposed changes to register properties. They will also work to raise community awareness of Mason County's history and historic resources and serve as Mason County's primary resource in matters of history, historic planning, and preservation.

Interested persons are encouraged to apply for this commission by completing an advisory board form that can be downloaded from our website – www.co.mason.wa.us or by calling the Commissioners' office at 427-9670 ext. 419 or 275-4467 ext. 419. The completed applications are due in the Commissioners' office by October 30, 2007.

If there are questions about this commission, please contact Barb Robinson at 427-9670 ext. 603.
