RE: Thurston/Mason Chemical Dependency Action Committee Opening

Mason County is seeking applicants to fill one vacancy on the Thurston/Mason Chemical Dependency Action Committee.

The Thurston/Mason Chemical Dependency Action Committee provides community education and awareness regarding chemical dependency prevention, intervention, treatment and aftercare (PITA).

The Action Committee meets as needed for a specific issue or project. Meetings are typically held at Thurston County Public Health & Social Services, 412 Lilly Road NE, Olympia. All applicants must be a resident of Thurston or Mason County. Length of membership is three years.

If interested, please contact Tina Gehrig at 360-867-2509 for an application and to observe a meeting.

Applications will be accepted until May 21, 2010.
